

The mission of the River Rat Writing Prize is to encourage and foster creative writing within the Huron community by celebrating the exceptional writing of current students. The Prize seeks to provide a creative outlet and authentic audiences for students. We believe that the student work produced at Huron deserves to be celebrated within our school community and with the community at large. Winners will receive public acknowledgement and financial reward for their inspiring work.

We encourage all students to enter the competition.

2017 River Rat Writing Prize.

Submissions due by 8am on March 27.

Go to riverratwritingprize.com
for more information.