

Pretty
by Maya Liu

Pretty

With each round she parades
Like a chant you say Pretty, pretty, pretty

As her brothers tumble round
Her head fills with one sound
Pretty, pretty, pretty

Don't you see, won't you see You say she'll only be Pretty, pretty, pretty

There's so much she will be Yet all you choose to see is Pretty, pretty, pretty

The World

what if someone told a girl she deserved
the world?

Books not looks

You think all we can do is just look nice
You think we don't have power; you'll think twice
